PROFILE.

I have been working as a designer for over eight years now, starting in-house it wasn't long before I set up my own company (design45). In search of a new challenge I decided to concentrate on working as a freelancer. Work has included desk top publishing, large format print documents, social media graphics and general artworking. I have also been involved in creating a number of presentation decks. Clients to date have included Range Rover, HSBC, The British Red Cross, iTunes, 888Sport, The Body Shop, Marks & Spencers, Baileys, YO! Sushi, Davidoff Cool Water, Lidl, Puma...
